‘We had complete faith and trust in both the school and African Adventures from the very start. ‘

‘I loved every second of it and I would do it all over again if I had the chance’.

It will make you realize just how lucky we all are and how we take things for granted when we shouldn't. I hope that future students that go on this trip understand that it is not a holiday, but a rare opportunity to volunteer for African Adventures that will change the lives of hundreds of children.

I always said when I was in Kenya that when I came back I wouldn't feel/think any differently however now I am back I've noticed the change on my outlook on life. Little things people say, I now hear and question how can you really think this when people I have met are content with their lives and are so optimistic....

In childhood there are key moments which shape who we are and the way we think. From listening to Amy and sharing her incredible experience in Kenya I know this is one of hers

This is so much more than the trip of a lifetime? This is a trip which shapes lives and not just those from Springfield. (Mrs Webber)
